What are cookies?

Cookies are small pieces of text sent by your web browser from a website you visit. A cookie file is stored in your web browser and recognize you, to make your next visit easier and more useful to you.

How we uses cookies

We use cookies to give you the best, most relevant experience on our website, but also for other improvements.

Session cookies: Session cookies are temporary cookies that are used to remember you during the course of your visit to the website, and they expire when you close the web browser.

Persistent cookies: Persistent cookies are used to remember your preferences within the website and remain on your desktop or mobile device even after you close your browser or restart your computer.

First-party cookies: First-party cookies are cookies issued from our domain that are generally used to render basic site functionality.

Third-party cookies: Third-party cookies belong to and are managed by other parties.

What are your choices regarding cookies

If you'd like to delete cookies or instruct your web browser to delete or refuse cookies, please visit the help pages of your web browser.

Please note, however, that if you delete cookies or refuse to accept them, you might not be able to use all of the features we offer, you may not be able to store your preferences and some of our pages might not display properly.
